

Florence Berthoud

Associate

Tax advisor, Master of Arts in Management

Florence Berthoud holds a master's degree in business management from the Faculty of Economics, Social Sciences and Management at the University of Fribourg. She began her professional career in financial planning before focusing on private taxation. By joining the Tax & Legal / People & Organisation department of a 'Big Four' firm, she was able to develop her knowledge and skills at the national level, then internationally within the Global Mobility division, advising expatriate employees.

After nearly five years, she joined Mercuris Avocats in 2021 as a tax specialist and has been advising our private clients ever since. Since October 2023, she has been following the certifying course in personal taxation offered by EXPERTsuisse.
